

Rules for Performance Artists
{XYZ} Farmers Market
2013

{XYZ} Farmers Market welcomes local musicians and other performers to enhance the market atmosphere. We strive to support local farmers and also seek to provide a free venue for local artists. Please read the rules and procedures carefully.

Rules for Performers

- 1) Acoustic live performance only (no amplification or recordings).
- 2) You may solicit tips by displaying a bowl, hat, instrument case or other receptacle, but not by actively asking for tips or passing around a tip jar.
- 3) You may offer for sale only your own recordings (no re-selling).
- 4) You may occupy any available space, subject to the approval of adjacent market vendors and the market manager (There is no designated performance space).
- 5) Any type of performance which involves harassing market shoppers, panhandling, shouting, disseminating propaganda or other potentially abusive or disruptive behavior will not be permitted.
- 6) Any performer using foul or offensive language within the context of their performance will be given one warning and upon a second offense, will be asked to leave immediately.
- 7) Interpretation of rules is at the discretion of the market manager.
- 8) While the market manager may make efforts to accommodate performers who arrive on a market day prepared to perform but who have not contacted the manager in advance, the manager reserves the right to deny your request to a same-day performance. Performers are strongly encouraged to follow the procedure below:

Performer Scheduling Procedure

If you are interested in scheduling a performance date, contact:

{Name of Market Manager}
{Phone}
{E-mail}

The manager may ask you some questions to gauge your potential compatibility with the market atmosphere, and, pending any conflicts, will schedule you on an available market day for a time slot that is mutually convenient. You must contact the manager as soon as possible if you need to cancel or reschedule such that s/he can recruit another artist.
